All Hands Cheered When the Marine Band Struck Up Ever Popular "Dixie."

By far the most brilliant ball ever given by the Southern Relief Society was that at the New Willard last night, when prominent society people from the North minsfed with the old blood of the South in not only a perfectly arranged dance but the most cerdial intercourse and hospitality. Men who dance nowadays only at this annual ball were there, and then there was a splendid array of splendid old laces and family jeweis worn by women who lend their presence to nother dancing event than the Southern ball. The Marine Band and the band from Fort Myer furnished a splendid musical program, the decorations being palms and American flags.

Miss Heth Received.

Miss Nannie Heth, president of the society, received the guests, her gown being a rich one of spangled tall in white over pale blue, with lace and verbeing a rich one of spangled tall in white over pale blue, with lace and verbeing a rich one of spangled tall in white over pale blue, with lace and verbeing a rich one of spangled tall in white over pale blue, with lace and verbeing a rich one of spangled tall in white over pale blue, with lace and verbeing a rich one of spangled tall in white over pale blue, with lace and verbeing a rich one of spangled tall in white over pale blue, with lace and verbeing a rich one of spangled tall in white over pale blue, with lace and verbeing a rich one of spangled tall in white over pale blue, with lace and verbeing a rich one of spangled tall in white over pale blue, with lace and verbeing a rich one of spangled tall in white over pale blue, with lace and verbeing a rich one of spangled tall in white over pale blue, with lace and verbeing a rich one of spangled tall in white over pale blue, with lace and verbeing a rich one of spangled tall in white over pale blue, with lace and verbeing a rich one of spangled tall in white over pale blue Mr. Parker followed, declaring that he is absolutely opposed to the principle of a commission having the rate making opower, as past experience had proved it unwise.

This railroad rate resolution is said to be a compromise on all sides, but it held a rump convention.
